THE 6:15 GATHERING

UNDERSTANDING SPIRITUAL GIFTS

EPHESIANS 6:15

“Stand on your feet alert! Then you’ll always be ready to share the blessings of peace”

Before you step into your responsibilities, meetings, family commitments, or ministry, take 30 minutes to prepare your heart in God’s presence.

The 6:15 Gathering is a weekly online Bible study for women who want to begin the day grounded in Scripture, encouraged in their faith, and connected with a community of women pursuing God together.

Each week we’ll:

Study God’s Word in a practical and life-giving way.

Pray for one another and our families.

Receive encouragement and biblical insight.

Grow stronger in our identity, purpose, and calling.

Start the day with peace, confidence, and spiritual strength.

Just as Ephesians 6 reminds us to put on the full armor of God, our 6:15 gathering is an opportunity to strengthen our faith,
centering our week,

before we step into everything the day holds.

Whether you’re new to the Bible or have walked with God for years, you’ll find a welcoming place to learn, grow, and be encouraged.

SPIRITUAL GIFTS

I HAVE A GIFT ?

WWW.JOHNSONMINISTRIES.COM

Every Believer has a Gift

“If I knew I couldn’t fail, I would...”

Share one dream you've carried in your heart.

The Big Question

Why Spiritual Gifts?

Many Christians spend years asking,

“What is God’s will for my life?”

The better question may be,

“What has God already placed inside me?”

Spiritual gifts are Heaven's equipment.

They are not medals for being good Christians.

They are tools for serving people.

Every gift points people toward Jesus.

Every gift builds His Church.

Every gift has purpose.

God has never created a believer without significance.

READ

1 Corinthians 12:4-11

As you read, underline every mention of:

- Spirit
- Gifts
- Given
- Same

What do you notice?

NOTES

Every Woman Has Been Given Something

Notice Paul doesn't say, "Some believers have gifts."

He says, The manifestation of the Spirit is given to EVERY believer.

Not just pastors. Not just leaders. Not just confident people. Not just older Christians. Every believer. This means there is no such thing as an "ordinary" Christian.

If the Holy Spirit lives in you... He wants to work through you.

"Remember, it's the same Holy Spirit who distributes, activates and operates these different gifts as He chooses for each believer."

1 Corinthians 12:11

The 9 Spiritual Gifts

1 Corinthians 12:4

Reflection

Which statement is hardest for you to believe?

- ☐ God has gifted me.
- ☐ God wants to use me.
- ☐ My life matters.
- ☐ I don't know my gifts yet.

Write why.

GO DEEPER

- Romans 12:3–8
- 1 Corinthians 12:1–11
- Ephesians 4:7–16
- 1 Peter 4:10–11

Before we learn what our gifts are,
we need to know who we are.

DISCUSSION

Unmute your microphone for this section, you can also write your answers in the comments section

Have you ever felt overlooked or believed God couldn't use you?

Why do you think so many Christians never discover their gifts?

What is the difference between a natural talent and a spiritual gift?

Which Bible passage encouraged you the most today?

What fears keep people from stepping into God's calling?

How can this group encourage one another over the next five weeks?

Finish these statements

People naturally come to me for...

I enjoy helping others by...

The moments I feel most alive are...

If I could serve anywhere without fear, where would it be...

WEEKLY ACTIVATION

1

- Read Romans 12
Everyday

2

- As you go about your days, reflect on the areas that God is highlighting to you in regards to the gift you think he's given you.

3

- Journal the gift
you feel is yours.
Why do you think He's equipped you and entrusted you with that gift?
- How can I use it better to serve others?

Almighty God

Thank You for creating me with purpose.

I reject comparison.

I reject insecurity.

I reject the lie that I have nothing to offer.

I believe You have uniquely designed me.

I believe You have placed gifts within me through Your Holy Spirit.

Open my eyes to see them.

Give me courage to develop them.

Teach me to use them with humility, wisdom, and love.

May my life point people to Jesus.

I choose today to become everything You created me to be.
